THE BIG DAY: SEXY

Of all the ways to show skin, we're partial to baring your back in a subtle curve-hugging silhouette.

HOW TO PULL OFF THE PERFECT JAMAICAN WEDDING

If you thought Jamaica was all jerk chicken and Bob Marley, think again. The past few years have seen a resurgence of life on the island, thanks in part to the buzzy NyamJam Jamaican Food & Music Festival (which has drawn famous chefs Mario Batali and April Bloomfield) and a slate of hotel openings and renovations (the Cliff Hotel in Negril, Trident Hotel in Port Antonio, and GoldenEye in Oracabessa Bay, among others). Now there are more chic spots than ever to host a destination wedding in this “Sun Is Shining” paradise. The hardest part? Picking the perfect one. Our team chose the storied Tryall Club (tryallclub.com)—a 2,200-acre former sugar plantation that now houses 75 villas, including 10-bedroom mansions—for its relaxed atmosphere and ideal location just 20 minutes from Montego Bay’s Sangster International Airport. The resort’s full-service team will help plan private activities to keep your guests happily busy, from in-villa cooking classes to boat excursions, tennis round robins, and golf outings. Meanwhile, the on-site wedding specialist will customize every detail of your ceremony and reception, which can be held on the beach, on your villa’s patio, or indoors at the Great House. Again, good luck picking just one.

THE BIG DAY: ROMANTIC

It's just like your grandmother's lace—but a bit more, um, see-through.

French-lace gown with illusion boatneck, $5,253, Yolán Cris; yolancris.com. Earrings, Kataoka; kataoka-jewelry.com. Shoes, Tabitha Simmons; tabithasimmons.com.

Beauty Note: Easy waves go perfectly with a whimsical aesthetic. Use Ouai Wave Spray ($26) to add volume and texture.
