Accommodations

Guest rooms in resort view, partial ocean view and ocean view.

Suites: six in all, two of each kind: the Ocean View Junior Suite, the One Bedroom Suite and the One Bedroom Suite with private pool.

Four private villas: two one bedroom villas, a four bedroom villa and a five bedroom villa, each with a dedicated butler and full access to the resort.

Original art: every room, suite and villa holds an original work by the artist Benjamin Garcia, created for the hotel.

Dining and bars

The Restaurant at The Cliff Hotel serves breakfast, lunch and dinner on the clifftop, built on Jamaican ingredients. Reservations through OpenTable.

The Cave is a private dining venue in a natural sea cave, its entrance beneath the almond tree between the restaurant and the sea, for up to four guests, with prix fixe menus by reservation.

Two bars: The Cliff Bar, on the cliff and the place for sunsets, and the swim up Pool Bar.

In room dining and private dining are available throughout the property.

Wellness

KiYara Spa: two ocean facing treatment rooms and treatments drawing on Jamaican botanicals, with sunset massages by the sea and, by day, massages in The Cave.

Also on property: a clifftop yoga pavilion, a fitness center, a beauty salon, clifftop pools and private sea access for swimming and snorkeling.

Signature events

Negril Culinary Classic: an annual culinary event each April.

Walk The Cliff: an annual fashion event each May.

Jamaica Jerk Championship: an annual culinary event each December. The inaugural edition runs December 4, 5 and 6, 2026, with James Beard Award winners Rodney Scott and Andrew Black among the judges and Adrian Miller as host. The 2027 edition is set for December 3 to 5, 2027.

Gourmet Getaway: a culinary weekend with visiting chefs, held since 2022.

Weddings, celebrations and meetings: ceremonies on the lawns and cliffs, private dinners, and full property buyouts.

Renewal and expansion

A US$20 million renewal of the rooms, villas, restaurant and kitchen is under way, with the hotel open to guests throughout.

In October 2026 the owners acquired the neighboring Idle Awhile property, which operates this winter as Orchid Point Bungalows. The long term plan calls for approximately 60 rooms, suites and villas at deliberately low density, with expanded gardens and a new wellness center.
